FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City of Perris to Relocate Animal Control Division

PERRIS, Calif. (June 16, 2020) — The City of Perris has announced the relocation of the Animal Control Division from 1093 Harley Knox Boulevard to the new location of 227 N. D St, Perris, Calif., in the Code Enforcement Office beginning Monday, July 6, 2020.

The mission of the Perris Animal Control Division is to enforce and communicate laws and ordinances pertaining to the treatment and control of animals and to educate the public on animal care. The Perris Animal Control Division provides responsive and efficient animal control services and animal law enforcement with compassion, integrity, and professionalism.

The City of Perris services residents within the City limits only. Riverside County provides services for the unincorporated area, even if a resident's address is in Perris. If a house address has four or less digits, it is within the City's jurisdiction, but five digits is the jurisdiction of the County. The Riverside County Animal Control can be reached at (951) 358-7387.

Regular office hours for the newly relocated Animal Control Division remains Monday – Friday, 7:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. and excludes legal Holidays. To contact the Perris Animal Control Services Division, please contact (951) 657-4134.
